MEMBERSHIP FAQ'S

Q: Do I need a Share to become a Member?

No. The Golden Golf Club is a Non-Profit Society and does not issue Shares.

Q: Is there a Food and Beverage minimum in the Restaurant? Pro Shop?

No. There is no minimum spend in the Restaurant or Pro Shop. In 2017, the Club resumed control of our F&B operation and we appreciate our Members' continued support of this important service center.

Q: What happens if I cannot play one season due to an injury or an unforeseen circumstance?

Simply inform the Administration Office and you will be transferred to the Non-Play Membership category which is $251.40. There are no fees associated with returning to your previously held Membership Category if the Non-Play Membership was paid annually.

Q: What payment plans options are available?

The Club offers flexible payment plans for four, five, six, seven, or eight months. For additional information on these options, please contact our General Manager or Office/Financial Manager.

Q: What other options does the Club offer if Membership is not chosen?

The Club offers the #GolfGolden Points Program, designed to fit a variety of lifestyles. Additionally, discounted Green Fee promotions are available through Alberta Days, Foot-Joy Wednesdays, Titleist Thursdays, and daily Twilight rates.

Q: How much does it cost for Club Storage, Driving Range Pass, or a Season Cart Pass?

Club Storage is $154.95, Driving Range Pass is $201.55, and an annual Power Cart Pass is $599.95. We also have a combo Club Storage and Driving Range Pass available for $314.95. Taxes are included in the previously mentioned prices and Junior rates are also available.

Q: Does the Club host corporate or outside tournaments?

The Club hosts far fewer corporate or outside tournaments than many other Clubs. Most events are smaller groups of 12-24 players, which have minimal impact on Members' tee access. In recent years, the Club hosted the BC Men's

Mid-Amateur Championship in 2023, Golf Canada NextGen Fall Series in 2022, and the BC Golf Ladies Amateur in 2018.

Q: Is League Play only open to Members?

No. All League Play is open to Guests as well. For the Competitive Ladies League (Tuesday) and the Men's League (Wednesday), non-Members participants are required to have a Golf Canada Handicap.

Q: Are lessons and custom fitting available?

Yes. The Club has three PGA of Canada Professionals on staff for lessons and custom fittings. Throughout the season, major golf manufacturers visit for Custom Fit and Demo Days.

Q: How long is the golf season?

The course generally opens around the third week in April, weather permitting, and closes on Thanksgiving Monday each year.

Q: When are Membership Fees for the following year decided?

Membership Fees are approved at the Club's Annual General Meeting in December as part of the fiscal year budget.

Q: Who governs and manages the Golden Golf Club?

The Club is governed by a Board of Directors of six Members and managed by the Management Team which consists of the General Manager, Office/Financial Manager, Head Golf Professional, Head Superintendent, Front of House Manager, and Head Chef.
